Protection of personal data

To protect your personal information, we, as <https://easyteamwork.org/> have a number of safeguards in place that apply when you enter, transfer or work with your personal information.

Disclosure of personal information and transfer of this information to third parties. Your personal information may be disclosed by us only if it is necessary to:

- (a) comply with the requirements of the law or the requirements of legal process in relation to us;
- (b) protect our rights or property; and
- (c) take urgent action to ensure the personal safety of our employees or consumers of their services, as well as public safety.

Personal information obtained at our disposal during registration may be transferred to third organizations and persons who are in partnership with us to improve the quality of the services provided. This information will not be used for any other purposes than those listed above. The e-mail address you provided during registration may be used to send you messages or notifications of changes related to your application, as well as to send you messages about events and changes taking place in the company, important information about new products and services, etc. You have the option to unsubscribe from these emails.

Use of cookies

When a user visits a website, a cookie is placed on their computer (if the user allows cookies). If the user has already visited this website, the cookie is read from the computer. One of the ways in which cookies are used is that they make it easier to collect visit statistics. This information helps you determine which information sent to your customers may be of most interest to them. The collection of this data is carried out in an aggregated form and is never associated with the personal information of users.

Third parties, including Google, can display our company's ads on websites on the Internet. Third parties, including Google, use cookies to serve ads based on a user's previous visits to our websites and interests in web browsers. Users can prevent Google companies from using cookies. To do this, you must visit the dedicated Google page at this address:
